Two Roads Professional Resources, Inc. Renews Line of Credit

Huntington Beach based staffing firm receives banking vote of confidence.

Huntington Beach, December 4, 2009: Two Roads Professional Resources, a leader in Technical Staffing, announced today that it has successfully renewed its operating line of credit with Bank of America.

“We are very pleased to have renewed our line of credit with B of A. In this extremely difficult credit environment it is nice to work with a banking team Two Roads has had a relationship with for thirteen years. I feel like they know us pretty well” said Tammy Gottschalk, co-founder and President. “The renewal reflects the banks continued confidence in our company’s management team as well as confidence in our financial stability and future direction. With the renewal of our credit line, we continue to have access to the financial resources necessary to develop growth opportunities.” explains Gottschalk.
